WAIVER OF ARRAIGNMENT AND ORDER SETTING PRE-TRIAL HEARING

COMES NOW, the Defendant by and through his/her attorney and respectfully shows this Court as follows: said Defendant is the same person named herein, Defendant’s name is correctly set out herein, Defendant understands the elements of the offense charged and hereby enters a plea of “Not Guilty.” The Defendant would further show this Court that said Defendant understands that he/she has the right to be served with a copy of the information and that said Defendant has the right to be formally arraigned. Understanding these rights, said Defendant does hereby intentionally, freely, knowingly and voluntarily waive the right to be served with a copy of the information, waive all formalities of arraignment and waive Defendant’s right to be arraigned until the time of trial.

Further, Defendant and his/her attorney acknowledge the Court’s requirement that all pre-trial matters set out in Article 28.01 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure must be raised by written pleadings filed seven (7) or more days before the pre-trial hearing set herein below. Any such matters raised after said time will not be considered absent express permission of the Court for good cause shown.

Signed this _____ day of _____, 20____.
